Maintenance of Life is about what has developed in one present-day society to address social death and modern dying. It is based on a 15-month qualitative study of home death in the Netherlands with general practitioners, end-of-life patients and their family members. CAP - The Maintenance of Life: Preventing Social Death ... “Frances Norwood’s The Maintenance of Life exposes an interesting irony in the discourse on euthanasia. While legal in the Netherlands, only a small percentage of people seek assisted death. Euthanasia, it seems, has sparked an unofficial movement that allows for a natural life span where people value meaning-making over a quick escape from ... The Maintenance of Life – New

Approaches to Aging: Person ... In The Maintenance of Life, Norwood provides poignant narratives of home visits, including those that resulted in the voluntary death of the patient. She laces the narratives together with a convincing analysis of how "euthanasia talk" is a critical component of end-of-life care in The Netherlands. The Maintenance Of Life Norwood -
