human? | StudentSoul Anselm: Why the God-Man? In this article I will explain God's redemption of humanity in Christ as articulated by the medieval theologian Anselm of Canterbury. Specifically, I will explain Anselm's view of what God did for humanity in Christ, and why only a God-Man—i.e., one who was both fully human and fully divine—could have performed the work. God-Man: Anselm Moreover, God became man "to save the lost." Note well: Jesus does not say that he came just to make salvation possible for the lost. He says that he came "to save the lost." This is so important! If Jesus merely made salvation possible, and if salvation becomes actual only if I do something, then the bottom line is that I must save myself. Why Did God Become a Man? The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom. And the favor of God was upon him. (Luke 2:40) Then, after recounting the story of a 12-year-old Jesus impressing adults at the temple (Luke 2:41-51), Luke reports some two decades — well more than half the God-man’s dwelling among us — in this simple sentence: How God Became a Man: What Jesus Did for Thirty Years ...
