Christians don't know the day or the hour but we are exhorted to watch so we won't be deceived. Jesus warned, "...When you see all these things, know that it's near—at the doors." (Mat 24:33) What things? The invasion of Jerusalem by the Antichrist is a sign Christ's coming is near. For those who refuse to watch, Jesus promises to come like a thief. If this is true, then why are most apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers proclaiming the rapture must come before the Antichrist? Tragically, the falling away of Christians is going to be far greater than we ever imagined. Those who overcome the Antichrist and his evil world system will never be blotted out of the Book of Life. This is the message of the hour for the strengthening of the body of Christ. Why? Because Jesus said it (Mat 24:25). Five college friends have arrived at forty in very different circumstances, but with at least one thing in common: they are among the more privileged in society. Despite their status, these women face everyday obstacles, including work problems, parenting challenges, secondary infertility, racism, sexism, financial stress, and marital woes—and as they weather their fortieth year, each one can't help but wonder if their life might have been different if they had followed Heather's advice. But as these friends are continually reminded, life is complex, messy, disappointing, and joyful, often all at once—and no one can plan her way out of that reality. In the end, all five women
